PURPOSE:

The City of Greensboro Safety Review Board is a plan to address occurrences of violent crime at certain locations in the City of Greensboro. City staff have worked with owners and operators of these locations to create the Safety Review Board. The Board plans to implement the plan in January of 2022.

BACKGROUND:

Following a number of violent incidents at locations which serve, and/or allow the consumption of, alcohol on their premises, City staff worked to develop a plan to address these incidents while also fostering a collaboration with the owners and operators of these establishments.
