PURPOSE:

To support the listing of the Pilot Life Insurance Company Home Office, 5300 High Point Road in the National Register of Historic Places.

BACKGROUND:

The City participates in the National Register review process. Evidence of local support will be provided to the North Carolina National Register Advisory Committee which will consider the nomination at their meeting on June 9. The Historic Preservation Commission held a public hearing on April 27 and voted unanimously in support of the nomination of the Pilot Life Insurance Company Home Office to the National Register. The City Council has the opportunity to support the nomination as well by Resolution. Listing makes the property owner eligible for tax credits to encourage preservation and reuse of historic properties.

BUDGET IMPACT:

None.
