PURPOSE:

The City Attorney's Office requests revisions to City Ordinances in Chapter 9 Civil Preparedness and Emergencies to add or revise language to enforce a violation of the City Ordinances as a criminal violation either Class 3 misdemeanor or an infraction where appropriate, to provide for consistency with amounts of fines imposed by the City, to remove state statutes no longer in effect and to repeal City Ordinances that are addressed by state statutes.

City Council approval is required for all changes to these Ordinances. NCGS §160-175 provides that no ordinance specifying a criminal penalty may be enacted at the meeting in which it is first introduced. Legal is requesting review of the ordinance on June 21, 2022, for enactment on July 19, 2022.

BACKGROUND:

North Carolina revised NCGS §160A- 175 and §NCGS 1§4-4 effective December 1, 2021, regarding local ordinances. The pertinent portion of these statutes regarding proposed revisions are:

NCGS §160A-75(b): Except for the types of ordinances listed in subsection (b1) of this section, violation of a city ordinance may be a misdemeanor or infraction as provided by G.S. 14-4 only if the city specifies such in the ordinance. An ordinance may provide by express statement that the maximum fine, term of imprisonment, or infraction penalty to be imposed for a violation is some amount of money or number of days less than the maximum imposed by G.S. 14-4. Notwithstanding G.S. 160A-75, no ordinance specifying a criminal penalty may be enacted at the meeting in which it is first introduced.

NCGS §14-4: (a) Except as provided in subsection (b) or (c) of this section, if any person shall violate an ordinance of a county, city, town, or metropolitan sewerage district created under Article 5 of Chapter 162A, he shall be guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00). No fine shall exceed fifty dollars ($50.00) unless the ordinance expressly states that the maximum fine is greater than fifty dollars ($50.00).

(b) If any person shall violate an ordinance of a county, city, or town regulating the operation or parking of vehicles, he shall be responsible for an infraction and shall be required to pay a penalty of not more than fifty dollars ($50.00).

BUDGET IMPACT:
