Council Strategy Session Feb 15th and 16th

On February 15th and 16th Council will hold their annual strategy session on the campus of Bennett College. This will be a robust opportunity hearing from staff and peer colleagues about top priorities in the city and forecasting for 2024/25

CrossTown Routes

Route 1 will kick-off March 1st. This route will double the frequency of service and bring much shorter wait times and easier travel access. Transportation will hold upcoming public meetings for feedback about the name.

Hopper Trolley Extension

The Hopper Trolley has been extended through June of 2024. Response to the Hopper has been remarkable. Routes are averaging 5-7 minutes along the Elm Street corridor

Looking Ahead

The second annual State of the City will be March 20th, 2024 at Piedmont Hall. We look forward to hosting this event and highlighting the progress Greensboro made in 2023

- Eugene/Bellemeade is nearing completion of the first phase, with final resurfacing to be completed in the Spring when temperatures improve.
- The western block of Bellemeade will be the adjacent development.
- Greene St. utility relocations are underway. Davie St. has been released for bids, that came back on Dec. 21st

The next phase of increasing Police starting pay begins in April. GPD Officers currently graduating from the Academy will see a constructed once construction is complete on starting salary of $55,000. In April that starting salary will go to $57,000. We continue to be competitive with benefits for our Public Safety employees.

Disparity Study

Short-Term Rentals

Budget Adoption

The M/WBE office will receive the Disparity study results from Griffin and Strong in February. M/WBE will review the recommendations and present to council later that month.

Short-Term Rental regulations begin April 1st, 2024. The Planning Department has issued a FAQ to answer questions pertaining to implementation. Visit the Planning Department website to see an updated list.

Budget adoption will take place in June of 2024.

As the City of Greensboro gets closer we will schedule sessions with council and the public to review the budget.
