PURPOSE:

To enhance and expand workforce development programming for youth, adult, and public schools.

BACKGROUND:

The Division of Employment of Security contributes, as a partner, funding for infrastructure costs associated with the operation of Career Centers in Greensboro and High Point. Infrastructure costs are defined as non-personnel costs that are necessary for the general operation of the NCWorks Career Center, including rental of the facilities; utilities and maintenance; equipment (including assessment-related and assistive technology for individuals with disabilities); technology to facilitate access to the center; and many other infrastructure costs, such as signage and supplies.

BUDGET IMPACT:

This ordinance will increase the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) Fund Budget by $13,934.

Vision Statement: "A Community with Endless Economic Opportunities and Exceptional Quality of Life."
