PURPOSE:

City Council approval is requested for a budget ordinance to amend the Nussbaum Housing Partnership Revolving Fund budget in the amount of $570,950 for expenses related to the Summer Doorway “Pallet Shelter” Project.

BACKGROUND:

Building on the success of the Winter Doorway Program, the City will repurpose 30 pallet shelters to provide relief during the hottest months of the year. The program will be temporarily located on the paved portion of the old Regency Inn site, which is undergoing an RFP process for Permanent Supportive Housing development. The shelters will be in place from April to October before returning to Pomona Park for the FY 2025-26 Winter Doorway Program.

BUDGET IMPACT:

This amendment will increase the Nussbaum Housing Partnership Revolving Fund budget by $570,950 from appropriated fund balance
